

AMIN AKBARI

Overview

Amin Akbari who was born in 1988 in Bojnourd, Iran, is part of the new generation of contemporary Iranian artists.

His art has been mostly focused on Installation over the recent years. He creates independent pieces, that when connected to each other, form a network of nodes that picture a unique situation and also allows the audience to interact and reflect.

His works are combinations of various artistic media that are created and developed in an experience-oriented process.

His latest exhibition was held in Dastan Gallery, titled "Unsafe Zone / Domestic Production" in 2018.
